Hartford Campaign for Grade-Level Reading

United Way is a lead partner in the Hartford Campaign for Grade-Level Reading, a community-wide partnership to ensure all children are reading on or above grade-level by the end of third grade.

Campaign partners include: Achieve Hartford!, Capital Region Education Council (CREC), City of Hartford, Fund for Greater Hartford, Hartford Foundation for Public Giving, Hartford Partnership for Student Success, Hartford Public Library, Hartford Public Schools, Lincoln Financial Foundation, Mega Education, LLC, and United Way of Central and Northeastern Connecticut.

In addition to leading the Campaign, we mobilize volunteers to read to children through our United Way Readers Program*, and through the creation and distribution of literacy kits to Hartford children.

Volunteers are currently serving Hartford students at the following United Way Readers program sites: Alfred E. Burr Elementary School, Asian Studies Academy at Bellizzi School, Burns Latino Studies Academy, Fred D. Wish Elementary School, Sarah J. Rawson Elementary School, Thirman L. Milner School, and West Middle Elementary School.*
