STORY OF IMPACT

"When we found out we were eligible for the United Way [emergency] funds we were ecstatic. This past year has been very difficult for our family. We have endured many turbulences including loss of job, increase problems with my health, and then of course the rise of COVID-19.

Through all this we are survivors and are very grateful for United Way and their support. It's ironic because in the past we have supported them and now they are helping us."
