

Juliene Phelan Bio

Juliene Phelan is an experienced leader who has been with The Hartford Financial Insurance Group for 15 years. She currently is the Assistant Vice President of the Central Recovery Operation (CRO), responsible for subrogation across all P&C and GB lines of business. She has held various roles throughout her tenure leading teams across Claims. Concurrently she led initiatives in The Hartford's Professional Women's Network, (PWN), an Employee Resource Group whose mission is to establish an inclusive community enabling women to achieve their full potential. Julie served as the Enterprise Co-Chair of PWN from 2018 – 2019, and served as the Workplace Co-lead in the years prior to this, where she led the creation and deployment of the PWN Ally program. Julie is an active volunteer with United Way Women United, supporting events and fundraising since 2011, serving as Chair of Red, White, and Chocolate in April 2022, and will be Co-Chair of the June 2024 Power of Purse event. She is vested in helping others achieve their potential both in and out of work and enjoys coaching and mentoring others. Her diverse background allows her to relate to her teams in a meaningful way, building a professional and inclusive environment. She has a BS in Psychology, minor in Human and Family Development from the University of Montana, Missoula, and a master's in project management from George Washington University, after which she earned her PMP certification in 2011. Julie resides in West Hartford, CT with her husband, two daughters, and chocolate lab.
