

Tisa Rabun-Marshall is a native of Seattle, WA, and currently resides in Glastonbury, CT, with her daughter. She is currently the Assistant Vice President, Digital Marketing for Nassau Financial Group and has held several other positions since joining the company in June 2004.

Tisa is deeply engaged with the Hartford community through past and current volunteer and Board leadership positions at Leadership Greater Hartford, United Way – Women United, The Amistad Center for Art & Culture, Footlights Center for Performing Arts, Phoenix Federal Credit Union, YMCA Minority Achievers Program and The Hartford Youth Scholars Foundation. She works to support programs and initiatives that help empower and give opportunities to underserved women and children.

Tisa has been awarded with the Hartford Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list (2006), Spotlight Award for Community Commitment by Footlights Center for Performing Arts (2008), Millard H. Pryor Award for Service by The Amistad Center for Art & Culture (2011 and 2021), and Hampton University's Forty Under 40 Alumni Society (2019).

In addition to her many volunteer roles, she enjoys spending time with her friends and family, traveling, cooking, hosting parties and holidays and being a mommy.

She is a graduate of Hampton University, Hampton, VA; and proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and the Greater Hartford Chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc.
